

Mission of the City of Deltona Cable Television Channel (CODTV):

The mission of the City of Deltona Television is to inform and educate the Deltona community on City issues, events, activities and services by providing informational programming through the television medium. Programming will serve to facilitate civil discourse on issues important to the Deltona community and to support informed participation by residents