City of Deltona Hires Community Development Specialist

August 25, 2009—The City of Deltona has hired Diane Hicks as the new Community Development Specialist. She will administer the SHIP, CDBG and NSP programs for the City of Deltona, and begins her duties on Monday September 14th. Ms. Hicks takes over for LeNelle Hartner-Stephens, who resigned from the position for personal reasons in July.

Ms. Hicks has 12 years experience working for Polk County and most recently was the Compliance Manager for the City of Daytona Beach. Her duties for both Polk County and Daytona Beach included the administration of CDBG funds, and ensuring local government compliance with federal agencies. Ms. Hicks also earned a B.S. in Business Administration from Florida Metropolitan University in Lakeland.
