For Immediate Release: Disaster Assistance Funds Available in Deltona

February 18— Grant funds remain for damages incurred by Tropical Storm Fay for income eligible homeowners in Deltona. Lori Serino, Community Development Manager said, “The State has provided the City with Disaster Assistance Funds, if there are families still in need, we want to help.”

The City of Deltona State Housing Initiatives Partnership (SHIP) Program offers grants and deferred payment loans for insurance deductibles and home repairs up to $50,000. Those homeowners whose houses were damaged as a result of Tropical Storm Fay are encouraged to apply for these funds, and applications are available at the Deltona City Hall located at 2345 Providence Blvd., Deltona, FL 32725, or on line at www.deltonafl.gov, listed under the Housing and Community Development Disaster Strategy.

For additional program information, rules and restriction, please contact Adele Joslin, Community Development Specialist at 386-878-8617.
