Deltona hires new Planning & Development Services Director

Dec. 29, 2008— The City of Deltona is pleased to introduce Chris Bowley as the City's new Director of Planning & Development Services. Bowley, a certified planner under the American Institute of Certified Planners, began Monday in his new role.

Bowley who was most recently the Director of Land Acquisition and Operations for Metro Development Group, LLC, was responsible for acquisition, due diligence, entitlements and the development of land holdings for the company. Bowley's previous experience includes a position as the Director of Planning and Development for DiVosta Homes, LP; a Senior Associate position with Canin Associates Inc.; and an Adjunct Professor at Rollins College, Winter Park.

"Chris (Bowley) brings a career of outstanding experience in planning and working with local governments. I know he will bring good leadership to our Planning & Development Services team," said City Manager, Faith Miller.

"I appreciate the opportunity and am looking forward to working with a great staff," said Bowley.

Bowley has a Masters and Bachelors of Science in Geography from Florida State University, Tallahassee.

Bowley will be supervising a staff of 13 including the Urban Design/Geographic Information Systems Division and the Housing & Community Development Office.
