“Friday Night Flicks and Fun” in Deltona

July 22, 2009 — No plans for Friday night? Want to have a family night, but aren't sure what's out there?

Join the City of Deltona's Parks & Recreation staff at 8 p.m., July 31, at the Harris M. Saxon Community Center for the showing of "Hotel for Dogs" starring Emma Roberts, Lisa Kudrow, Don Cheadle, Kevin Dillon, Jake T. Austin and Kyla Pratt. "Hotel for Dogs" is a smart, funny comedy adventure that shows how far love and imagination can take you.

When 16-year-old Andi (Roberts) and her younger brother, Bruce (Austin), find themselves in a foster home with a strict, "no pets" policy, Andi has to use her quick wit to help find a new home for their dog, Friday. The children stumble upon an abandoned hotel and begin transforming it into the perfect home for Friday- as well as all the strays in the city. In no time, the kids have transformed the hotel into something truly magical: a home for both the dogs and themselves. But they have also aroused the suspicions of the police who want to know-who let the dogs in?

All Friday Night Flicks are family-friendly and are rated either G or PG. The Community Center is located at 2329 California St. For more information, call Jamie Pearson, at (386) 878-8930.

Admission is $1 per person, with snacks available for a nominal cost. Please no outside food or drinks. So, bring your pillows and blankets and settle in for a good family movie. The City of Deltona is pleased to provide low-cost entertainment to the citizens of Deltona.
